Marengo Executive Coach

Cathie helps clients identify professional success strategies that unify their competitive edge with a desire to lead with compassion. She works with executives who are equally driven by ambition and purpose; those who realize that you can do hard things in a human way.

With more than 15 years of experience overseeing communications strategy for high-profile leaders such as Hillary Clinton, Chuck Schumer, Peter Jennings and Diane Sawyer, Cathie has confronted, managed and resolved some of the most complicated situations, personalities and crises. On Capitol Hill, as a campaign press secretary and Vice President of Communications at ABC News, she has been pressure-tested professionally in ways few people have and has a proven ability to maintain composure, equanimity and a clear head in the most challenging circumstances.

"When I started working with Cathie, I doubted I had a distinct vision. Cathie helped me uncover, define and embrace my personal leadership style and learn how to use my strengths to inspire my team in big and small ways. If you want a coach who is strategic, thoughtful and will push you to unlock your own potential, I encourage you to work with Cathie!"

-Ann, CEO, internal communications agency, client of Cathie

"Working with Cathie helped me raise the bar in every way and it propelled my company forward. Not only was I able to shift my behaviors to identify and overcome self-imposed roadblocks, but it allowed me to be more engaged and hold myself accountable."

-Katie, CEO of TwelveNYC, client of Cathie

"Working with Cathie has been transformative for me. She opened my eyes to new ways of thinking, new ways of managing, and new ways of existing in the workplace. Working with Cathie I have learned to think more deeply about the intention-impact gap and broader team dynamics, which are so fundamental to effective leadership. Her steer and wisdom have made a major impact on how I approach complicated issues at work."

-Senior Communications Executive, U.S. media company, client of Cathie

Working with Cathie Levine helped shape me into the leader I am today. It is because of her that I found my voice, my confidence, and the grit to move forward. She helped me identify within myself what I needed to focus on and held me accountable. I highly recommend you work with Cathie because not only is she kind, sincere, and relatable, she is also voice in your head that you need to push yourself to be better.

-Private school administrator, client of Cathie
