STRATEGIC ADVISORY AND EXECUTIVE COACHING

No more eye-rolls of forced professional development. We work with current and future leaders who are ready to invest their time and energy in a confidential, and therefore more effective coaching relationship

REFINE PROGRAM OFFERING AND OPTIONS

Whether you'd like to see engagements include assessments and feedback, we'll provide options to customize your organization's offering for executives.

We'll craft effective engagements for your employees based on the organization's culture and your learnings about what makes your employees tick.

FREE CONSULTATION TO ENSURE THE RIGHT FIT

When it comes to highly experienced and qualified coaches, "fit" is the best predictor of success of the working relationship.

Clients outline their goals for the engagement and pick the coach that feels right. To ensure it's a match, coaches hold a free consultation before moving forward with the relationship.

CONFIDENTIALITY FIRST MODEL

Because you're supporting the individual's development first, we structure feedback in a way that preserves the coach <> client relationship above all else. Examples include progress toward a confidential goal and/or testimonials.

Employees can fully and honestly invest themselves in the engagement, and they get better results.
