

JOSH NADELL

Marengo Executive Coach

Josh is a former CFO at a prestigious New York hedge fund with over 30 years of experience leading successful teams. Prior to that he worked in public accounting and then as a financial analyst at Goldman Sachs. Josh decided to become a coach to help other leaders, particularly in the financial services space, improve their leadership skills, emotional intelligence and mindset in order to push the boundaries of their success. Josh believes that the most effective leaders recognize the importance of creating an environment in which all team members feel inspired to do their best work, and he is passionate about helping them do so.

He has a BS from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Areas of coaching expertise

- Establishing trust and improving communication
- Learning strategies for enhancing responsibility and accountability of every team member
- Building self-confidence and improving resilience
- Shifting mindset to overcome blocks

Industry + functional experience

- Accounting
- Finance
- Non-profit
- Consulting
- Professional services

Ideal clients

- Executives
- Entrepreneurs
- People leaders
- High performers
- Career transitions

Professional/Corporate experience

- Began career as a CPA
- Several years experience as a financial analyst at leading global investment bank
- Chief Financial Officer at prestigious New York hedge fund

Education + certifications

- BS Economics from The Wharton School at University of Pennsylvania
- High Impact Leadership executive education program at Columbia Business School
- Coaching certification 2021

Visit us at marengoexec.com to work with Josh

JOSH NADELL

Marengo Executive Coach

"Working with Josh was one of the best decisions of my career. When I started working with Josh, I had been working in the financial industry for over 15 years. I was burnt out and needing a change. With Josh's help, I was able to gain the confidence to take the plunge to entrepreneurship. I have never been happier and more fulfilled. Thank you, Josh!"

-Former Consultant, Big Four Accounting Firm

"While I was transitioning into a new role, Josh helped me every step of the way from decision making to fitting into a new workplace culture. His coaching and mentorship gave me the confidence and strategic skills to stay ahead. His guidance was instrumental to my career success today."

-U.S. Head of Tax, Private Investment Firm

"Josh's positive and empowering coaching technique has been instrumental in helping me strengthen my effectiveness as a leader by identifying my leadership strengths and goals. I've built a stronger team and a more positive work environment while increasing my confidence and leadership skills."

-Founder, Not-for-Profit Organization

"Josh has been a very helpful resource when it comes to major career decisions. His decades of experience shine through in his analytical and thought-provoking approach to helping me through the decision-making process."

-Senior Associate, Big Four Accounting Firm

"Josh is one of the best leaders and mentors I've come across in my career. His approach is caring and genuine while being honest and objective. He has provided invaluable guidance, enabling me to think critically and empowering me to succeed. I've had the pleasure to work with Josh in various capacities and I owe many of my career achievements to him – I am incredibly grateful for his mentorship throughout the years."

-Founder, Financial Wellness & Literacy Platform

COMMUNICATE
MORE EFFECTIVELY

ENHANCE RELATIONSHIPS

LEARN CONFLICT
RESOLUTION
STRATEGIES

Visit us at marengoexec.com to work with Josh